(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the units have obtained Finance for rehabilitation of sick units in 1994-95?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) and (b) Small Industries Development Bank of India (SIDBI) has reported that it has been operating a refinance scheme for rehabilitation of sick small scale industrial (SSI) units. The scheme inter alia envisages that potentially viable units in the SSI sector conforming to the definition of sick unit and meeting viability norms would be eligible for rehabilitation refinance from SIDBI. The period of repayment of rehabilitation loan is fixed on a case to case basis, depending upon debt service coverage ratio (DSCR) and the maximum repayment period of loan shall not exceed 10 years.

(c) SIDBI has reported that it has sanctioned Rs. 3.78 crores and disbursed Rs. 1.35 crores to 77 sick SSI units during the financial year 1994-95.

Financial Institutions to reduce their stake in equity holdings

6907. SHRI V. HANUMANTHA RAO: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government will constitute a committee of Secretaries to examine proposals to set some general principles for financial institutions to reduce their stake in equity holdings;

(b) if so, by when such a committee will be constituted; and

(c) if not, the reasons thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) No such proposal is under consideration at present.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) Financial Institutions (FIs) follow their own policies as regards disinvestment of their shareholdings in industrial concerns. It may, however, be added that Government had in May 1990 issued guidelines relating to transactions in shares by FIs in order to make such transactions more open and transparent.

World Bank Policy in India

6908. SHRI O. P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether in a major policy shift the new World Bank President has said that instead of financing dams and other big development projects in the third world the Bank will focus more on private investments; and

(b) if so, the reaction of Government thereto and the likely impact of this new World Bank policy on India?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) and (b) The question relates to an article in the New York Times of April 27, 1995, which had reported Mr. Wolfensohn's emphasis on an advisory role and on private investment.

Mr. James B. Wolfensohn, the President designate, World Bank is to join World Bank with effect from June 1, 1995 in place of late Mr. Aewis T. Preston. Mr. Wolfensohn, when approached on the news item clarified that he is still a long way from being ready to lay out his vision of the Bank.

The Governor, RBI shall, whenever present, preside over the meetings of the Advisory Council and Vice-Chairman and Member of the Board shall be permanent invitees to the meetings of the Council.

Irregularities in Bombay and Calcutta Stock Exchanges

6910. SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that transaction in Bombay stock market had to be suspended for a number of days recently;

(b) if so, the details and reasons therefor; and

(c) what steps are being contemplated to set up adequate safeguards to prevent irregularities in Bombay and Calcutta stock markets?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The Bombay stock Exchange suspended trading for three consecutive sessions from March 20,1995 to March 22, 1995 because of a payments crisis which developed following the default of a member Broker. The member failed to make a net payment of Rs. 13.1 crores for the combined B Group settlement Nos. 35,36 and 37. Consequently the member was declared a defaulter on March 18, 1995. Consequent to the default of the member, the liability position of more than 50 other members of the Exchange, having a business relationship with the member in the scrip of M/s. M. S. Shoes East Ltd., underwent a change and the Stock Exchange felt it necessary to assess the liability position of these members. It was, therefore, considered expedient to close the Exchange.

(c) Securities and Exchange Board of India has been, on a regular basis, advising the stock exchanges to be alert to the problems arising out of a falling market, clubbing of settlements and facility of renewals. Furthermore, stock exchanges are making efforts to monitor the settlementwise position of every member in the change
